

Call for Papers

New Mexico-West Texas Philosophical Society

Papers are invited for the 61st annual conference of the New Mexico-West Texas Philosophical Society to be held in Abilene, Texas, March 26-March 28, 2010. The conference will be held at the MCM Elegante; 4250 Ridgemoor Dr; Abilene, TX 79606; (325) 698-1234. The room rate is $94 per night (plus tax). The fee (if any) for parking at the hotel is to be determined. The banquet fee is to be determined. The deadline for paper submissions is January 15, 2010. For more information about the conference, please consult the society's website: nmwt.org.

To be considered for presentation, papers approximately 3,000 words long should be submitted electronically (as a Word attachment) and presentable within 25 minutes. There will be comments on every paper. If you would like to be considered for making comments on a paper, please let us know. To be considered for publication in Southwest Philosophical Studies, papers must be no more than 3,000 words plus endnotes. Each paper should be prepared for blind refereeing. Authors should also send a 400-words-or-fewer abstract. Please send an electronic version of papers to Peter Hutcheson, the Secretary-Treasurer, at nmwtphilosophy@gmail.com.

The New Mexico-West Texas Philosophical Society awards two prizes: (1) the HubertGriggs Alexander Memorial Award for an excellent paper by a philosopher at any career level, on any philosophical topic, but especially on aesthetics, philosophy of language, symbolic form, Hispanic philosophy, classical philosophy, or the role of philosophy in the humanities; and (2) the Houghton Dalrymple Memorial Award for an excellent paper by a graduate student or recent Ph.D. on any philosophical topic, but with a preference for papers on epistemology or Hume. Each award includes a check for $100.00 and publication in Southwest Philosophical Studies. Those wishing to be considered for either of these awards should put "Alexander" or "Dalrymple" in the subject line of their e-mail message and include a CV with their submission.
